NEWS - Fire declared onboard Grande Roma car carrier

Dear Sir or Madam,

We have been informed of a fire that broke out on board the car carrier Grande Roma, operated by Grimaldi, on October 25, 2025.

The fire occurred offshore in the English Channel while the vessel was sailing from Antwerp to Jebel Ali.

No injuries or pollution have been reported.

The vessel was towed by the Abeille Liberté and is expected to arrive today at the port of Le Havre.

The general average has not been declared to date, but may be declared shortly.

If you insure or reinsure cargo on board and need assistance in handling any claims for assistance and/or general average, please do not hesitate to contact us.
